

Nature-Based Tourism and Forest Management--Conflicts or Opportunities?

Thursday, August 28, 2008
Carrabassett Valley, Maine

AGENDA

- 8:45 AM     Registration, Sugarloaf Grand Hotel, Carrabassett Valley
- 9:00 AM     Regional Nature-based Tourism Studies, Planning and Experience
Shaunacy Cobb or Bruce Hazard, Mountain Counties Heritage
- 10:00 AM     Discussion: Including consideration of opportunities and potential conflicts for involvement of nature-based tourism with working forests; attitudes of residents and user groups in region; conflicts among different kinds of nature-based tourism
- 10:30 AM     Travel to Maine Huts & Trails Poplar Stream Hut
- 11:30 AM     Maine Huts & Trails Program: Accomplishments and Plans
Larry Warren, Founder and President and others, Maine Huts & Trails
- 12:00 PM     Working lunch at hut
- 12:30 PM     Depart for Bigelow Lodge in Bigelow Preserve
- 1:30 PM     Forest Management and Recreational Uses of the Preserve: Conflicts and Opportunities Among Different Recreational Users. Discussion and field visits
Steve Swatling, Forester, Maine Bureau of Parks & Lands
- 3:30 PM     Depart for Sugarloaf
- 4:30 PM     Arrive at Sugarloaf. Adjourn.